

26th Annual International Symposium
on Man and His Environment in Health and Disease

Special Focus

Molds & Mycotoxins

Hidden Connections for Chronic Diseases

June 19-22, 2008
Dallas, Texas

This event is jointly sponsored by the University of North Texas Health Science Center Office of Professional and Continuing Education and the American Environmental Health Foundation. 20.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s),™ Category 2A, AOA and 20.5 Type 1 Contact Hours TNA/ANCC

Since 1981, the International Symposium has been recognized as one of the most advanced medical forums in the world addressing the research and treatment of environmental effects on health and disease. The 2008 conference will focus on “Molds and Mycotoxins, Hidden Connections for Chronic Disease.” For this year’s conference, we have assembled a faculty of top international experts for you. This Conference presents the most current information available while providing guidelines to identify, diagnose, and treat and to prevent environmentally triggered responses in the body.

Meeting Goals

- Provide new insights into the mechanisms and the environmental causes behind many problems seen by the physician.
- Present new diagnostic and treatment modalities to help improve the quality of care for complex patients.
- Provide concepts and tools that will enhance the physicians practice.

Meeting Objectives

- Improve the outcome of treating patients with mold and/or mycotoxin exposure and chemical sensitivity.
- Use new concepts and treatments to help better diagnose and manage many patients with mold and/or mycotoxin exposure and chemical sensitivity.
- Apply the concepts of this conference by using nutrition and environmental manipulation for the treatment of mold and/or mycotoxin exposure and chemical sensitivity.
- Use the information presented to enhance the effectiveness, cost-efficiency, and competitiveness in relation to mold and/or mycotoxin exposure and chemical sensitivity.

Intended Audience

M.D.’s, D.O.’s, D.D.S.’s, medical students, nurses, nutritionists, and other health professionals interested in the concepts and practice of Environmental Medicine, Occupational Medicine and Toxicology.

Accreditation

Physician Accreditation/Credit:
